Dear Colleagues, Fellow Survivors, and Friends:

We are deeply saddened to share with you that John Thompson passed away in the hospital, earlier this week, from cancer.

We don't have any words to express how much we will miss John. For nearly 15 years he was The Morris Center's primary point of contact to countless survivors, therapists, and family members who reached out to us for help. John was, in so many ways, our trusted advisor when it came to ASCA training and outreach. He was a kind man - always here for survivors who just needed someone to talk to, and untiring in his service to The Morris Center.

We mourn his passing and the loss of a good friend, colleague, and courageous activist for healing from child abuse in our world.

We'll close with John's signature quote:

"Only the dead have seen the end of war and child abuse."
Rest in peace, John.

The Morris Center will host a memorial/tribute for John via Zoom on Sunday June 14th from 11am - 12:30pm PDT.

Please RSVP via email to John@ASCA.Cloud

If anyone wants to share something about John, or images that remind them about John, they can do so via this email.

Sincerely,

Jessy Keiser
